EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Most technology investments fail at adoption. I build and scale AI-powered platforms where the user experience is designed from day one, so deployment becomes growth, not resistance. At TIAA, I served as product owner for CareerSpark: an AI-powered career platform I conceived, built through agile development cycles, and deployed enterprise-wide across 16,000 associates, integrating it into the enterprise SaaS learning ecosystem and driving 1,500+ active users. Earlier career at Pearson Performance Solutions: product roadmap ownership for enterprise SaaS platforms, 50-80% client hiring cost reduction, and Fortune 500 global deployments.
